Welcome

Welcome to Hay on Wye, the world-famous “Town of Books.” Each year, hundreds of thousands of visitors explore our unique corner of the world, and we are delighted that you have joined them.

While bookshops are at the heart of Hay, we also have much more to offer. Unusual independent shops, cosy cafes and country pubs, extraordinary outdoor activities and breath-taking scenery.

Above all else, Hay is a town of creativity and ideas. Browsing the bookshops, visiting for Hay Festival or simply walking in the surrounding countryside can offer inspiration like nowhere else on earth.

Be warned – Hay is an addictive place!
